GIST OF CONVERSATION BETWEEN COLONEL WECKERLING AND GENERAL BANFILL:

1. General Banfill stated that he could accomodate Pacific MIRS at Camp Ritchie,
2. At Colonel Svensson's suggestion I requested that the nucleus of the present personnel consisting of one officer and five (5) Nisei NCO's be retained in the Pacific Order of Battle Section for a period of ten (10) additional days in order to extract intelligence from and to translate captured transfer lists recently received from Saipan.
3. Colonel Weckerling stated that the official decision as to the location and final disposition of Pacific MIRS would be contained in an official communication to the Chief, MIS.
